Study Sheet:

1. The Bible Goal of racial reconciliation is deep friendships and requires deep, mutual respect and mutual goals
2. Friendship isn't something that just happens
3. Just mutual respect is not enough for deep friendship
4. One of the two common pillars of friendship is common goals (Jam. 4: 4, Rom. 15:5, Amos 3:3, Jn. 15:4, Phil. 2:2)
5. 7 common goals: work, church, neighborhood, hobbies & sports, my children's activities, courses and church leadership
6. It generally takes two common purposes to build a close friendship
7. Most important point of the whole series: There are two groups: Group one is humble, white Christians who are opposed to racism because it's a moral evil. Group two is humble, white Christians who have personally experienced racism hurting their friend.
8. At Liberty Church, no more than fifty percent of the leadership will be white
